PIONEER WASHER.
E. G. BOLTER,
AGENT FOR OREGON AND WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

THIS CELEBRATED WASHING MACHINE IS now for the first time introduced to the Oregon public. It is unrivalled for its simplicity, durability and the rapidity and ease of its action. Washing the dirtiest clothes perfectly clean in from five to ten minutes, with but slight labor, and lasting, with proper care, for ten years. The wear and tear of clothing in washing by this machine is vastly less than by any other known process of washing. It does its work by a reverse motion in forcing the water through the clothes.

It having a tight cover, the steam thus assists materially in cleansing the clothes, and also avoids the inhaling of steam from hot suds.

This Machine captured the Special Premium at the California State Fair, and all that have used it pronounce it an invaluable adjunct to aid housekeepers and families and washing men and washing women.

It has been extensively introduced throughout the State of California, and receives the universal commendation of all who have used it.

THE COUNTY RIGHTS, now unsold, will be sold at a bargain if applied for soon.

For Reference, enquire at the
Mansion House, and of | John Wilson,
Southworth's Boarding House, | Mrs. S. F. Johnson,

U. S. GRANT,
Will make Two Trips per Week to the
CITY OF ASTORIA!
Carrying Passengers at $10, the Round Trip, (Meals Included.)

The Boat leaves Portland Wednesdays and Saturdays at 7½ A. M. Returning leaves Astoria Thursdays and Mondays at 6 o'clock A. M.

Every person purchasing a Passenger Ticket will be presented with one of 900 Prize Tickets, to be drawn on the 1ST DAY OF AUGUST, 1867, for the following Prizes:

Steamer U. S. GRANT, to be divided into 4 shares;

ONE BLOCK OF LOTS IN EAST PORTLAND, divided into 8 shares, or one lot to the share, viz: Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, Block 17, opposite the "New Columbian" Hotel, and at the terminus of the proposed Suspension Bridge;

ONE GOLD WATCH, worth $100;

150 CORDS DRY FIR WOOD, in 3 shares, to be placed on the Brooklyn Wharf.

The Steamer is 54 tons burthen, 52 horse-power engine, propeller wheel, draft of water 5 feet. She is being thoroughly refitted and refurnished as a Passenger Boat. The Boat will be delivered in perfect order, free from all incumbrance, and Warranty Deeds made for the real estate, to the persons drawing the same. Tickets can be had of C. P. FERRY, in Portland, where the money will be left on deposit till the prizes are drawn and delivered.

Any person having a claim against me, and wishing a ticket, can get an order for one by calling on me on board the boat. The person drawing the gold watch can have $100 in gold coin, if preferred.

C. P. FERRY, Broker, R. J. LADD, ex-Sheriff, AL. ZEIDER, U. S. Marshal, and C. S. SILVER, Merchant, of Portland, are the Committee and Judges to direct the Drawing of Prizes. The Prizes will be drawn before the 1st of August, if all the tickets are taken before that time.

The above liberal offer is made to the traveling public to enable the subscriber to pay his debts, and not with any reference to speculation, as all the property is valued at much less than its cost, (the Steamer alone having cost $11,000), and the price for carrying passengers to Astoria being much less than the usual fare.
Portland May 21, 1867 d2m J. W. KERN.

Wendell Phillips and the Johnson-Stanton Rupture.

[From the Anti-Slavery Standard, Aug. 13th.]

Johnson has challenged Stanton. The reticent Secretary of War accepts the challenge. The duel monopolizes the attention of the whole land. Nobody but the President doubts the result, unless, possibly, Seward may be equally deluded. Still, though the result is certain, the country is naturally anxious as to the path by which the goal is to be reached. Stanton submits and resigns under protest—and to the consternation of the country Grant takes his place. On this precise point we forbear comment until events show their course more fully. Meanwhile the rebels murder negroes and Unionists at their pleasure, Texas is given up to anarchy and Kentucky is a den of assassins. How anxiously Union men, North and South, warned Congress against the folly of adjourning after tinkering that single flaw which Stanbery had invented in the Reconstruction Act, assuring Senators that another would be invented the moment it was needed. The President picks this flaw in the Civil Office Tenure Act, rendered bold because he has no Congress to fear until November.

One can hardly blame the President for this subterfuge. Senators refused to impeach, and tried instead to envelop him in a net of limitations. He naturally tries to find a break or dropped stitch in the net. Knowing the whole movement was more than half a sham, he is too old a gamester not to see the trick. They affect supreme anxiety about violating the Constitution by any attempt at impeachment. In reality they are scheming for a Presidential candidate. Are there foxes in the Senate cunning enough to hide their tracks from Reynard in the State Department? When Johnson reads Senator Sherman's speeches he probably quotes his own words, "When you hear a man prate of the Constitution, spot him; he's a traitor." When Seward reads Fessenden, he remembers Avonmore's portrait of Clare, "one who stickles for the letter of the Constitution with the affectation of a prude and abandons its principles with the effrontery of a prostitute." Do such men make the White House traitor afraid? No, indeed. A Capitol full of them would be only poppies and mandragora to medicine him to sweet sleep. He fears a House of Representatives full of Radicals—a Senate whose foremost men demand his impeachment. What use of laws to mesh and hold such a rebel? What he needs is an overseer while he remains in office, and to be thrust out of it as soon as possible.

Meanwhile, see how rebels grow bold and Unionists fly and hide themselves. See how each mail brings fresh news of negroes hunted and murdered. Whence this new courage in rebels? It comes because of the hour, the President, unchecked, represents and wields the Government; because that rebels see that Johnson has tools enough in the Senate to strike out that provision in the House's bill forbidding him to remove the district commanders, and, by adjourning Congress, take the clutch of the radicals from the nape of his neck.

For every broken heart and desolated home in the South, for every murdered black there, we hold Fessenden, Wilson, Edmunds, Conklin and their clan, responsible. We will not be told by such a course this man's hands for the Presidency are strengthened and that other measure is sure to be advanced. The policy which stalks to its purpose over bloody hearths and murdered men is devilish. No game is admissible where the counters are life and death. Heartless men shall not sit in the Capitol playing with the lives of negroes and Unionists, and escape rebuke merely because they style themselves politicians. Their proper style is murderers. We know that we use stong language. Let the reader put himself beside the hunted Unionist of Texas—let him stand under the desolate roof whose owner has just been shot in the presence of his wife and children—let him think of the negroes ruthlessly murdered by hundreds—and then ask himself if the strongest terms we can use do not halt and linger far behind the truth?

If Stanton is removed, those Senators did it. If Rousseau goes to New Orleans to take Sheridan's place, they sent him there. To get places for their families—to leave national finances wholly in the hands of capital—to engineer Grant's nomination, these men opposed impeachment and voted to adjourn Congress, leaving Johnson free course all the summer, only that they might carry on their plots. It is unfair to single out one sinner. Johnson could do little harm without the aid of these men, his satellites and tools in the Senate. If Johnson dares to day to challenge Stanton, it is not because Kentucky and Louisiana rebels fill his antechamber and Seward poisons his ear. It is not because the World and Chicago Times bluster in his behalf. He dares to-day to challenge Stanton, because Henry Wilson, Grant's jackal, consents to carry the challenge, and Fessenden, in return for a dozen offices given to his kindred, acts as second in the fray.

Do not let us so disgrace the American people and discredit their intelligence and virtue as to tell the world that an exposed and all but convicted rebel of Johnson's calibre can mislead them and jeopard their future. Having survived Lee and Davis, who had, at least, ability, let us not show this nation trembling before a clumsy knave with neither character nor ability. Let us not admit that our fellow citizens are overawed by a Cabinet like that at Washington. Few of its members ever had any reputation, either for honor or ability, to lose, and no one had any reputation which in the eyes of an intelligent people could ever endure keeping such company. No, let us tell the truth. The nation watches this duel in anxious suspense only because Wilson, Sherman, Fessenden and their fellows stand behind the President; because they stab the Secretary of War.

CHASE AND HIS CALUMNIATORS.—A few days since a brief paragraph found its way among our personal items, to the effect that Chase went into the Treasury possessed of very little private means, and came out of it, and is now very rich. We are assured by a gentleman of this city, who is not a political friend of the late Secretary of the Treasury, nor ever an advocate of his financial policy, that the story is utterly without foundation. He assures us, and on authority that cannot be questioned, that the limited private means of the Chief Justice are now about the same as they were when he was appointed to the Treasury, and that these means, although the same in nominal amount, are in fact of much less value for the purpose of living than then, which is a condition of things we can all understand in these days of high prices. We regret that, in a compilation of brief personal items, this misstatement got into our columns, and it is but justice to give it this prominent contradiction.—N. Y. World.

This handsome paragraph, says the New York Tribune, of August 13th, induces us to say something in reference to the calumny recently put in circulation about Chase, to the effect that, having entered the Treasury a poor man he now possesses an income of $700,000 a year. Thurlow Weed seems to be the author of this story. As the libels of this representative scamp are tolerably good evidences of the integrity of the person libeled, we have passed it by. It is very hard that a man with the stainless record of Chase, with a life of purity, courage, earnestness and fidelity, should find himself charged with stealing the public moneys. We happen to know that this is the one sin from which Chase is free, and, without attempting to drag a gentleman's private business before the world, we also believe that the statements of our Washington correspondent are substantially true. Chase is to day a much poorer man, by reason of his public life, than when he entered the Treasury, and a great deal poorer than if he had remained at the bar. This we say in justice to a cruelly wronged man. It is not the first time that we have noticed infamous assaults upon his family. Even his high station is no safeguard from these pestilent creatures who, unable to do or appreciate anything great, gain notoriety by assaulting the greatness of others. These cowardly attempts to injure Chase in the confidence of the nation, however, will have the effect attending like assaults heretofore made. They will serve to arouse the determination of the people to vindicate one whose life has been devoted to their cause.

Social Progress---The Labor Question

[From the North American R[illegible]

The law of modern social pr[illegible] Maine has pointed out, is the [illegible] nearly all relations of life, of co[illegible] status, but there is no class of the com[illegible] which this law has acted more slowly [illegible] class. In archaic society [illegible] status provided for him by [illegible] born. He was neither a [illegible] power all or the greater p[illegible] woman was always the [illegible] relatives. In primitive societies [illegible] free laborers, who worke[illegible] as States grew, and indu[illegible] riches accumulated, free laborers [illegible] safe to say that, before th[illegible] Roman Empire, nearly all the work of [illegible] was done by slaves, employed [illegible] or by persons to whom the[illegible] out, as negro slaves were [illegible] out by owners at the South in [illegible] farm laborers, artificers, miners [illegible] ors, and even literary me[illegible]. The free laborer had literally no [illegible] The conversion of th[illegible] which was the condition in [illegible] at the dawn of modern hist[illegible] a great step in advance; but it is on[illegible] present century that the last traces [illegible] have disappeared in Europe. In Russ[illegible] the last three years, some of the [illegible] the Roman mechanics [illegible] pocketed their wages, [illegible] for them; so that it [illegible] although the process began [illegible] thousand years ago, it is only within [illegible] the present generation that the [illegible] status has been comp[illegible] destined by law to [illegible] condition. When he has reached [illegible] discretion, he can determine what his [illegible] The lives of all of us, of co[illegible] scribed by our circumstances [illegible] capacity are regulated by con[illegible] making, and not by legal rules [illegible].

Probably few, who [illegible] attention to the social pl[illegible] have noticed to what an exte[illegible] is affecting many of the most imp[illegible] of modern life. Parents, for inst[illegible] must always retain, the lega[illegible] the conduct of their children [illegible] attain their majority. But in p[illegible] of this right is undergo[illegible] The advocates of im[illegible] are becoming almost as rare as [illegible] of corporal punishment. [illegible] expected as they were [illegible] to do things simply [illegible] or because they are [illegible] education are based [illegible] standing and parents and teachers [illegible] necessary, whenever it is possible [illegible] their orders or decisions, [illegible] natural, and not simply the artificial [illegible] obedience or disobedience, an[illegible] the child's own will into play in [illegible] his conduct.

In like manner the [illegible] apprenticeship may [illegible] disappeared from among us, [illegible] our ancestors was [illegible] century ago a lad, who was [illegible] trade was literally forced [illegible] for five or seven years. [illegible] was made a member of the master's family, [illegible] was controlled by orders and rules from [illegible] His earnings [illegible] and the trade were not open [illegible] until he had served out his time. He might be beaten or disciplined in any other way [illegible] that seemed necessary to secure [illegible] and if he ran away he was [illegible] pursued and brought back, with [illegible] as a fugitive slave. [illegible] advertisements offering rewards for the capture of runaway apprentices were not uncommon [illegible] newspapers sixty years since, and we know [illegible] what earnestness one set of interpreters of the Constitution of the United States [illegible] that the clause providing for the [illegible] held to service" applied [illegible] and not to slaves. But apprentices [illegible] may now be said to be unknown. [illegible] such a position, and few masters [illegible] have him work for them on any [illegible] As a general rule, apprentices [illegible] as long as they please; and in [illegible] the master's claim on their obedience is n[illegible] that of their journeymen. In [illegible] apprentices cannot now be had [illegible] Young men learn trades when [illegible] and how they choose.

So also in the relat[illegible] and wife, the tendency of [illegible] modern states—of course it is [illegible] rapid and more perceptible than in [illegible] reduce marriage to an instrument f[illegible] children simply, leaving [illegible] husband and wife which are n[illegible] be regulated by individu[illegible] law had a status ready for the [illegible] she passed the minute after the [illegible] over, and which placed both he[illegible] property under the absolute control [illegible] most European countries [illegible] by custom, to this day, [illegible] her husband; but in all [illegible] day a stronger and stronger [illegible] her liberation from all lega[illegible] matrimony which are not necessary [illegible] paternity of her children and provis[illegible] maintenance. One of the rights of women [illegible] most strongly asserted in the pre[illegible] about her condition, and one w[illegible] is rapidly obtaining recog[illegible] after marriage, to the contr[illegible] in the matter of child-bearing.

We might multiply these [illegible] indefinitely. Our proposition is [illegible] sufficiently clear, and may be su[illegible] saying that the tendency, both of legis[illegible] usage in modern times, is to release [illegible] from obligations imposed by im[illegible] and to submit our social relations mo[illegible] the dominion of contract simply.

AMUSING INCIDENT.—The San F[illegible] tin of August 31st has the follo[illegible]

The Maine Election.

The result in Maine, as shown by the partial returns received indicate a reduction of the Republican majority of last year; but the diminution of the Republican strength is apparent rather than real. It will be observed that the vote is compared with that of last year, which was by no means a fair indication of the relative strength of the parties. Last year the Republicans got a larger majority in Maine than they ever before obtained. Under the unusual excitement that attended the contest between the President and Congress, the Republicans put forth their utmost efforts. Johnson was "swinging around the circle" making coarse and inflammatory speeches, arraigning Congress as an illegal body and threatening revolution; and many who had theretofore voted the Democratic ticket came over, under these influences, to the Republicans. The consequence was that the Republican vote last year was many thousands larger than ever before, while the Democratic vote was correspondingly decreased. The vote of the State this year falls under 100,000, and is less by more than 15,000 than that of last year; while those Democrats who voted with the Republicans in the last election would naturally go back to their party on the first opportunity, thus putting the two parties on their old footing. The Democratic vote last year was only 42,111. In 1864 it was 46,403, and in 1863 it was 50,366. From these figures it will be seen that the great Republican majority of last year was not a true test of the strength of the parties, and that the falling off in the present election is apparent rather than real. The vote of the State, it is said, will not exceed 100,000, and as the Republicans have 13,000 to 14,000 majority, the Democratic vote cannot exceed 44,000, which is but little larger than that of last year, and much smaller than that of either 1864 or 1863. In 1864, in the height of the war and under the great pressure which was laid upon the Republican party through the [illegible] of supporting it, Gov. Cony got only 15,915 majority. Considering that the contest in Maine this year was not at all animated and that much less than the usual vote was thrown, the Republicans have done well, comparing their [illegible] with their former efforts. The majority of last year was exceptional, and such as is rarely achieved by any party, and it could not be expected that it would be maintained in every election.

STATE DEBTS.—An American writer contributes to the London Economist a paper respecting the States and local debts of the United States, which contains in a compressed form much new and useful information upon this subject. These debts are popularly supposed to be much larger than they really are and it is the habit of many persons to exaggerate them as much as possible, with the purpose in view which leads them to magnify the national debt far beyond its actual [illegible]. The increase of State debts from 1860 to 1866 covering the entire period during which these debts are supposed to have been so very greatly increased was only $96,000,000, [illegible] amounted in [illegible] to $360,000,000, and in [illegible] to $256,000,000. The total indebtedness of [illegible], cities, towns and villages added to the [illegible] State debts, would raise the whole sum of [illegible] and local indebtedness to about $650,000,[illegible]. A very large share of this debt is based upon improvements which are a successful oper[illegible] debts are therefore only municipal [illegible] and impose no burdens on the people. [illegible],000,000 of the local debts of New York [illegible] this description. In very many States the [illegible] diminished rather than increased during the war. Only the States which paid large [illegible] to soldiers increased their indebtedness [illegible] 1864 to 1866. The estimates showing the [illegible] are derived from the latest State [illegible] and are official. They embrace all the [illegible], Northern and Southern.

A DEMOCRATIC [illegible].—In the great [illegible] which is being hatched at Washington to implicate [illegible] Ashley and others in [illegible] against Johnson [illegible] prominent Democrats [illegible] badly mixed up. A dispatch from New York [illegible] August [illegible] gives the following:

The Times prints a series of documents going [illegible] the complicity of Ben Wood, A. J. Rogers, Wm. Bathford, W. E. Niblac, C. A. Eldridge [illegible] F. C. LeBlond with Conover in an effort to [illegible] a pardon from the President; also affidavits of Nathan Oaser and Jameson, detailing an [illegible]view with Roger A. Pryor, Dick Taylor, Ben Wood and Conover relative to manufacturing [illegible] against Judge Holt. Other affidavits of Martin and Francis M. Fall also testify to similar interview. The plan appears to have [illegible] to include the release of Jeff. Davis on bail [illegible] and the affidavits are certified to before [illegible] Public in New York City under dates of [illegible] and May 12th.

So this "infamous attempt on the part of [illegible] is to suborn witnesses against the [illegible] is simply a little game among the [illegible], got up at Johnson's instigation, to [illegible] his political opponents. It is a specimen [illegible] conspiracy, very clumsily constructed. [illegible] Democrats are the suborners and the [illegible] their backer. Most of the names given above are those of Democratic members of Congress.

Ex Senator McDougall, of California, died at Albany, New York, on the 3d inst. He was born in Bethlehem, in that State, in 1817, and was about fifty years of age. He was once Attorney-General of Illinois. In 1850 he came to California. He served one term in the National House of Representatives and one term as Senator from that State.

The city organ is very fond of speaking of its [illegible] in this city as "corruptionists." Now, considering that the organ and its supporters have themselves been engaged in schemes of corruption which have been checked by the Courts, this is quite as "cool" as other statements which continually emanate from that quarter.

George H. Pendleton delivered a speech at Lima, Ohio, on the 15th of August, in which he strongly re-affirmed extreme State-sovereignty views.

A man named Thomas Eastman fell into a shaft ninety feet in depth near Virginia City, Montana, a short time ago and was instantly killed.

THE HARNEY LAKE COUNTRY.—The Unionist has the annexed paragraph:

> Camp Crook is the name of a new post lately established in the Harney Lake country, on a small creek known as Rattlesnake, and is located on the east side of the valley, about twenty-five miles north east of Lake Malheur. There is considerable of good land in the vicinity of this camp, and if it is permanently occupied by the troops, a thrifty settlement will spring up around it. The location of a permanent post in the Harney Lake country has long been regarded as a necessity among those who are familiar with the geography of Eastern Oregon. It will enable the miners to prospect a large region of country, up to the present time untouched by pick or shovel, and also permit our stock raisers and farmers to avail themselves of the extensive pasturage and fertile lands in that vicinity. The winters, so far as they have been tested by actual experience, are not as severe in the Harney Lake valley as at the Dalles. The new post is a little south of a line running due east from Yoncalla, in Umpqua valley, and as the basin in which the lakes are located is not separated by any high mountain range from the great basin that runs south to the Colorado river, it is thought the climate there will be mild.

The New Amnesty Proclamation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The following pardon proclamation, prepared yesterday, was not issued until this afternoon

A Proclamation by the President of the United States of America—

WHEREAS, The President of the United States, on the 8th day of December, 1863, and on the 26th of March, 1864, did, with the object of suppressing the then existing rebellion, and of inducing all persons to return to their loyalty and of restoring the authority of the United States issue a proclamation offering amnesty and pardon to all persons who had directly or indirectly participated in the then existing rebellion, except as in those proclamations was specified and reserved, and

WHEREAS, The President of the United States did, on the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, issue a further proclamation with the same objects before mentioned, and to the end that the authority of the Government of the United States might be restored, and that peace, order and freedom might be established, and the President did, by said last mentioned proclamation, proclaim and declare that he thereby granted all persons who had directly or indirectly participated in the existing rebellion, except as therein excepted, amnesty and pardon, with the restoration of all the rights of property except as to slaves, except in certain cases where legal proceedings had been instituted, but upon the condition that such persons should take and subscribe to an oath therein prescribed, which oath should be registered for permanent preservation and

WHEREAS There no longer exists any reasonable danger, nor is any to be apprehended, within the States which were involved in the late rebellion, or any unlawful resistance by the people of said States to the Constitution and laws of the United States, and

WHEREAS As large standing armies, military or occupative, martial law, military tribunals and the suspension of the privilege of habeas corpus and right of trial by jury are in time of peace dangerous to the public liberty, and incompatible with the indubitable rights of citizens, contrary to the genius and spirit of our free institutions and exhaustive of the national resources, and ought not therefore to be sanctioned or allowed, except in cases of actual necessity for repelling invasion or suppressing insurrection or rebellion; and

D. 1865, viz: "I do solemnly swear or affirm in the presence of Almighty God, that I will henceforth support, protect and defend the Constitution and Union, that I will in like manner abide by and faithfully support all Laws and Proclamations which have been made during the late rebellion with reference to the emancipation of slaves, so help me God."

The following persons are excluded from the benefits of this proclamation and said proclamation of 29th May, 1865, namely:

First, The chief, or pretended executive officers, including the President and Vice President, and all heads of Departments of the pretended Confederate or Rebel Government, and all who were agents thereof in foreign States and countries; and all who held or pretended to hold in the service of said pretended Confederate Government, military rank or title above the rank of Brigadier General, and the naval rank or title above that of Captain; and all who were or pretended to be Governors of States while maintaining, abetting, submitting to and acquiescing in the rebellion,

Maine Election

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 9.—Returns from the election in sixteen towns, gives Chamberlain, Republican, 3,089; Pillsbury, Democrat, 5,639; majority 2,450. The same towns last year gave Chamberlain a majority of 5,819, showing a Democratic gain of 3,369. Biddeford gives a Democratic majority of 240 against 90 last year

LATER.—109 towns give Chamberlain, Republican, 27,715, Pillsbury, 18,683. The same towns, last year gave Chamberlain 31,660; Pillsbury, 16,505. Chamberlain's majority this year is 9,032 against 15,089 in the same towns last year, making a Republican loss of 9,053. The aggregate vote in these towns was 43,308 against 48,210 last year. The total vote of the State last year was 115,340; this year it will probably fall a little under 100,000. Seven tenths of the State are in with a loss of nine-fifteenths of the majority of last year. The same ratio will reduce the Republican majority to about 13,500 or a loss of about 14,000. Democrats will gain Representatives in some towns, but not enough to give them much power in the Legislature.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

Travelers are always liable to sudden attacks of dysentery and cholera morbus, and these occurring when absent from home are very unpleasant. PERRY DAVIS VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER may always be relied upon in such cases. As soon as you feel the symptoms, take one teaspoonful in a gill of new milk and molasses, and a gill of hot water. Stir well together and drink hot. Repeat the dose every hour until relieved. If the pains be severe, bathe the bowels and back with the medicine, clear.

Fishermen, so often exposed to hurts by having their skin pierced with hooks and fins of fish, can be much relieved by bathing with a little Pain Killer as soon as the accident occurs; in this way the anguish is soon abated; bathe as often as once in five minutes, say three or four times, and you will seldom have any trouble. Sold by dealers everywhere

PASSENGER LIST.—The following is the passenger list per steamship Oriflamme which sailed from San Francisco for Portland on Saturday last, and will probably arrive to-day. This list has been delayed on account of the break in the wire south. Miss D B Hood, Mrs Hector and children, G A Cook, Commodore Watson, J J Harvey, J S McClintock, J E Bently, John Bently, Mrs Oliver, Mrs G Levy and servant, Judge Field, J A Ripperton, P Selling, Col R N Scott, Maj J S Hoyt, Dr Baker and wife, A V Peters, M O'Connor, Mr Frederick, W Currier, G W Snell, E Grimes, S Linkton, J R Probst, Mrs Duvall, Mrs J N Moore, G Payne and wife, Miss Champion, Mrs J Freelong, Wm Pickett, H Findley, W P Abrahams, W Perry, J Fox, F Bartlett, M Clayton, W B Chapman, J Mason and wife, Mrs Gen J Stevens, Miss Kate Stevens, Capt Gillis, Dr Belden, Mr Constand and wife, C Fisher, C Cohn, F Gaul, W W Francis, P D Wheardemburg, J H Albert, J W Gilbert Meyer, B Loeb, M Jacobs, C T Gates and wife, Mrs Newton, Master Gimball, D Martin and wife, and forty in the steerage.

QUARTZ MILL AND STEAM ENGINE.—The Willamette Iron Works have been engaged in constructing a 10-stamp quartz mill for the Humboldt Gold and Silver Mining Company, located on Eagle Creek, Oregon. The machinery for the mill is about completed, part of it being already shipped. They are building a thirty horse power steam engine at the same foundry, for the above named company. We saw some of the castings at the warehouse of the O. S. N. Co. yesterday, which were of fine finish, and reflect credit upon the manufacturers. All of the above machinery being of Oregon make, is constructed in the most substantial and workmanlike manner and upon the latest and most approved models.

PRESENTED.—We were shown, yesterday evening, by Mr. A. E Rodgers, of Umatilla Lodge No. 40 A. F. & A. M., two blocks of marble, called, in Masonic language, a Rough and Perfect Ashlar. They were made by Mr. Wm. Young, of this city, and by him presented to the above Lodge. They are of the finest quality of Italian marble, and are wrought in the best workmanlike manner. The donor will no doubt receive the sincere thanks of the Lodge for this beautiful gift.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.—The improvement of Alder street, west of First, was commenced yesterday. The City Surveyor was engaged in fixing the grade and workmen were employed in removing obstructions, &c. This thoroughfare has long been an eye-sore to all who had occasion to pass it, and its improvement will add much to the appearance of that part of the city, and also to the comfort and convenience of those who reside in that vicinity.

A LUNAR BOW.—The Helena, Montana, people have enjoyed, lately, the rare sight of a lunar bow, "suspended from the Heavens and arching the brow of the lofty old hill in front of Spokane," according to the Helena Herald. It is described as appearing during one of the brightest nights of the season and "transcendant above anything ever witnessed of the strange or beautiful." Verily, the Heavens are showing forth wonders, this year.

SALE OF SCHOOL LANDS.—The sale of school lands in Clackamas county took place on yesterday, conducted by the State Commissioners. But a small quantity of land was sold. The aggregate of the sale amounted to $550. A great deal of the land offered for sale in different sections of the State is quite valuable, and the attention of those wishing to purchase is invited to the notices of the times, places and terms of their sale.

BEAR KILLED.—On last Saturday, Mr. Barnes, residing five miles west of this city, succeeded in capturing and killing a large black bear, weighing over four hundred pounds. Bruin "fortified" in the old beaver dam near Mr. B.'s residence, but was compelled to surrender to his enemy. A chance for some of our "nimrods" is offered, as a she bear and her cubs are still lurking in the mountains west of the city.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Business in this Court was suspended yesterday, owing to the absence of his Honor Recorder Hoffman, who has gone to the Dalles. He will be absent until Thursday or Friday. The examination of John Brown alias Henderson, who was brought down from Salem on Monday, is postponed until the Recorder's return.

A WILD BEAST.—As a team was passing over the mountain toward Twalatin Plains, on last Sunday, a large panther sprang from the thick brush by the roadside, and attacked a colt following the team. The driver and others ran to the rescue of the colt and succeeded in driving the ferocious beast away, after a chase of a few hundred yards.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHT.—The steamer Senator brought down the following freight from the Willamette Valley: 165 sks wheat, 30 sks feed, 360 sks flour, 3 bales woolen goods, 12 coops chickens, 2 boxes mdse and 62 boxes fruit. A great quantity of produce is being constantly brought in from the country by teams.

SICK.—We owe our readers an apology for the scarcity of local news this morning, but the "Cap." is "under the weather." We entertain great hopes of his speedy recovery, and then you may expect to learn what is going on.

TO CONTRACTORS.—The contract for the improvement of Fourth street from Harrison to A, was not let yesterday, as advertised, but will be to-day, when bidders are invited to be on hand at the office of the City Auditor.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Met at 10 A. M. yesterday. A motion in the case of Fields vs. Heirs of D. H. Lownsdale was taken up, argued and submitted, after which the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

TELEGRAPH STATION.—Arrangements have been made for the establishment of a telegraph station at Waconda, Marion county, and the necessary apparatus is on the way from San Francisco.

SENATOR WILLIAMS AT THE DALLES.—Senator Williams was announced for a speech at the Dalles last evening, on the political issues of the day, generally, and the mint question, particularly.

ELECTION.—At a meeting of the Spartan Base Ball Club, held last evening, Richard Cardwell was elected Captain of the First Nine, and C. P. Ferry, Scorer.

FRESH OYSTERS.—A fine lot of these bivalves arrived by the Okanagan last evening. We were not informed as to the name of the consignee.

THE SHIPMENT OF TREASURE by Wells, Fargo & Co. per steamer Oregon amounted to $10,000.

BEARS, BEAR IN MIND THAT BURMAN BROS. will open, on arrival of the steamer Oriflamme, a fine and large invoice of clothing. We will give no one a chance to go away without purchasing, if there is any buy in them. On corner of Front and Morrison streets, formerly City of Paris Store, Portland.

TO BUILDERS.—Bids for erecting a School-House, 25x40 feet, will be received until Monday, 16th inst. For plans and information apply to W. H. Bayless, Esq., Architect, corner of Front and Morrison streets.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—Boise City, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital, $100,000. B. M. DuRell, President. C. W. Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places in Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Coin or Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

STATE ITEMS.

The Public Schools of Salem will reopen on the 16th instant.

The Unionist says the Oil Mill Company have 3,000 bushels of flax seed on hand.

The Linn county Agricultural Fair commences on the 30th inst. and will close on the 3d of October.

The Journal says that on last Wednesday night, the extensive blacksmith shop of Arthur Bros., at Brownsville was destroyed by fire. Their loss was about twelve hundred dollars.

The Columbia Press reports favorable mining news from the North Fork of John Day's river. Extensive preparations are being made for hydraulic washing, and new ditches are in progress.

The Sentinel's Roseburg letter says: Louis Billien and George Fluch, who went out into the Cascade mountains early in the season, on a prospecting expedition, arrived in town a few days ago, and report the discovery of very rich silver mines on the summit, between the Willamette and North Umpqua rivers. The specimens exhibited by them are said to be very rich.

The Umatilla paper says: News has been received from the prospecting party which left here about a month ago. The party send word that they had discovered a gold-bearing quartz ledge and a vein of coal. A specimen of the coal was sent to this city and can now be seen at the Montana Saloon. It is pronounced by those who are competent judges, to be of a superior quality. They are now prospecting in the vicinity of the lakes on the other side of Olive Creek.

The Albany Journal has the following: In the County Court last week, the trial of a suit in replevin to recover a horse, between I. J. Frakes, as plaintiff, and Jeremiah Lewis as defendant, occupied the Court for the most part of two days. On Saturday morning the jury were discharged because of failure to agree, and the cause goes over for the term. Between thirty and forty witnesses were in attendance and examined on the trial. The horse was valued at about $80, and the costs now reach $222 65.

The following are the Supreme Court proceedings of the 9th: Benjamin Bequette, respondent, vs The People's Transportation Company, appellant. Motion to dismiss appeal overruled. J. N Dolph, respondent, vs. John L. Nickum and wife, appellant. Leave given to amend the return of service of notice of appeal. State of Oregon respondents, vs. John Fitzhugh, John C Hannon, appellants. Judgment affirmed. Thomas M. Isett, respondent, vs. John H. Isett and Edward B Isett, appellant. Argument closed and case submitted. Nancy Kent, appellant, vs. John T. Brown, et al, respondents. Argument closed and case submitted.

A letter to the Sentinel from Josephine county, says: I do not think I have ever seen in your paper a notice of a tunnel, commenced by Messrs C. H. Beach, O. Anderson & Co., nearly three years ago, to run through the ridge between Althouse and the valley. The lower part of the creek is known to be rich, auriferous gravel; but there is no way of working it without running a tunnel a thousand feet long, through rock so hard that two men can run only one foot a week. This the company have undertaken to do, and will succeed. In the tunnel they will put a four foot flume, with a fall of three inches to every twelve feet, through which they can run a very large amount of gravel in a season.

VOTING THE PAUPERS.—While the New York convention was discussing the provision to disfranchise paupers, Mr. Greeley said:

I personally participated in an election where a member of Congress was chosen directly by votes brought out of the alms house in New York for that purpose, the intent being, as the effect was, to elect a member of Congress by the votes brought from the alms house. There are in the New York alms house five hundred persons who are paupers. Do not we know that the men who control that alms house will contrive to let out such men to vote? I suppose that cannot be questioned. I know that last year the alms house was largely depopulated to send away into the several wards men to vote in that election, on the ground that they had not lost their residence by being in the alms-house two years. They could be sent back to the original wards where they could vote. You know very well that the political party which has not control of the alms-house will not get any vote. They will be compelled, nay, they will be told: "If you go out to vote you cannot come back. We will shut you out, or put you on bread and water." If that were not so, they would say, "If you do not give us roast turkey to-morrow we will vote against you at the next election." They understand that.

BRIGHT IN KENTUCKY.—Jesse D. Bright, who was kicked out of the United States Senate for disloyalty, and removed to Kentucky for sympathy in his ignominy, made a speech the other day to a Copperhead Rebel crowd in Kentucky, in which he announced that he was in favor of a State law re-imbursing every man who lost anything by reason of the late war, and then claiming reimbursement to the State from the General Government. Of course the Rebels of Kentucky can pass whatever State law they please, but the passage of United States Laws is effected under different auspices, and not likely to be influenced by what Bright may say or not say.

HOPE FOR RECONSTRUCTION.—The Hartford Courant says:

James Gordon Bennett has been promised the Austrian mission by President Johnson. This we infer from the sudden leap which his ever-reliable journal has taken from the comparatively firm ground of a quasi liberalism into the quagmire of Johnson Copperheadism. As the Herald has thus abandoned the support of reconstruction, there is great hope that the Union will be speedily reconstructed.

Important Notice to Mechanics.—The demand in the city of San Francisco for Ship-Carpenters, Caulkers and Boiler-Makers, is unusually great at the present moment. Competent mechanics will find immediate employment by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, the Oregon, California and Mexican Steamship Company, the California Steam Navigation Company, and the various Ferry Companies.

All the above mentioned companies are making improvements of such magnitude that able-bodied men need not be idle a single day. The present demand for workmen must continue for years to come, as the amount of work actually now contracted for, and in contemplation, will furnish employment for every mechanic on the Pacific coast.

Wages, $5 50 per day, in gold!

Capable men who are now seeking employment in Oregon and the interior towns of California, can obtain regular work here, at the price above given, by asking for it.

Let them come as soon as they choose. They are needed in San Francisco.

The wages of men employed about steamers and ships are always of the highest grade, and men who can do such work have never been known to lack employment.

In all cases where men do overwork, the extra hours are at double pay.

In no place is there so much overwork and nightwork done as in San Francisco, as haste and despatch are the watchwords here, and the companies are ready to pay for such extra work.

San Francisco, August 24, 1867.

Important Notice to Ship Carpenters, Caulkers and Boiler-Makers.

Brothers, beware of and do not be deceived by the above lying poster, which is gotten up by parties who a few weeks ago threatened that they would flood the market with mechanics, for the purpose of destroying trade organizations and breaking up the eight-hour system.

There is no unusual demand for the above-mentioned class of mechanics. There are, and have been for months, from fifty to one hundred and fifty men idle, who are most anxious to work.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company, California, Oregon and Mexico Steamship Company, California Steam Navigation Company, and the Ferry Companies, are at the present time building two steamboats; one is nearly done; the other will give work to about twenty-five carpenters for three and a half months.

There is but comparatively little repairing done, the P. M. S. S. Co.'s ships having been extensively repaired within the last year.

On the boats now building, $5 per day is being paid, no higher wages being demanded; the $5 50 which is offered in the card being paid for old work and on short jobs.

Capable men in Oregon and the interior towns of California had better remain there, as there are at all times from one-fourth to one-half more men in the city than can find employment.

The P. M. S. S. Co., for the last ten years, have given steady employment to not more than ten Ship-Carpenters; the other two Companies probably as many more; the Ferry Companies not pretending to give steady employment to any number of Carpenters or Caulkers.

Extra work does not amount to five days' work per man a year.

In conclusion, fellow-mechanics, we would say to you, an attempt is being made to destroy all Trade Organizations by the capitalists of this city.

Beware! Do not be deceived by the representations of parties who are ashamed or afraid to give their names.

By order of the Association.

Attest: JOHN F. BANFIELD,
Secretary Journeyman Shipwrights' Association

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers, Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

In Strawberry Time.

The garden gate, as we two passed through,
Swung slowly backward, then closed again;
Over our heads the sky's deep blue
Purer shone for the last night's rain,
And the milk-white clouds through the azure sailed,
And over the landscape cool shadows trailed.

Through checkered sunlight and shadow we went,
Hettie and I that sweet June day,
When the odor of clover blooms was blent
With the fragrant scent of the new mown hay;
And the voice of the bobolink sounded clear,
As he called his mate from the meadows near.

Half shy, half wanton, the light wind played,
On the breezy uplands, with Hettie's curls,
That over her shoulders idly strayed,
And kissed the cheek of this queen of girls,
As we sauntered on by the path that led
To the meadows where grow the strawberries red.

Together we stopped in the tall green grass,
That day when the June sun shone so fair;
But my thoughts were all of this village lass,
And not of the strawberries growing there:
Of her cheeks where the rose its blushes shed,
And her lips like the berries so ripe and red.

Soon her basket was filled to the brim,
When turning on me her great brown eyes,
From under her straw-hat's shadowy rim,
She darted a look of quick surprise;
For you might have counted the berries that lay
In the basket I carried that sweet June day.

"Hettie," I said, as I rose—and she
Withdrew her gaze in a gentle alarm—
"One basket's enough for you and me;"
And lifting hers, laden, across my arm,
We sauntered back by the path that led
From the meadows where grew the strawberries.

But long ere we reached the garden gate,
She and I, on our homeward way,
From her own sweet lips I had learned my fate,
O, happy the hour and happy the day!
And happy my heart in its new found bliss,
As I sealed each vow with a lover's kiss.

Ah! many a year since then has gone by;
But whenever the month of June draws near,
And the clouds grow whiter that crest the sky,
Or whenever the bobolink's voice I hear,
As the summer approaches her golden prime,
Comes the thought to me of that strawberry time.

The Chieftainess and the Volcano.

Few regions in the world are more beautiful than those islands far away in the Pacific, which we have been used to call the Sandwich Isles. They are in great part formed by the busy little coral worms, but in the midst of them are lofty mountains, thrown up by the wonderful power that we call volcanic.

In sailing up the islands the first thing that becomes visible are the two lofty peaks, each two miles and a half high. One is white with perpetual snow, and the other is dark—dark with lava and cinders, on which the inward heat will not permit the snow to cast a white mantle. The first of these has been tranquil for many years, the other is the largest and most terribly active volcano in the world, and is named Kilanea. The enormous crater is a lake of liquid fire, from six to nine miles in circumference. Over it plays a continual vapor, which hangs by day like a silvery cloud, but at dusk is red and glowing like the Aurora Borealis, and at night is as a forest in flames.

Rising into this lurid atmosphere are two black cones in the midst of a sea of fused lava, in which black and pink rocks are tossed wildly about as in a seething caldron. The edge of this huge basin of burning matter is a ledge of hard lava, above which rises a mighty wall of scoria or cinder, in one place forming an abrupt precipice four thousand feet high, but in others capable of being descended, by perilous paths, by those who desire to have a closer view of the lake of flame within.

Upon the bushes that grow on the mountain-top is found a curious fibrous substance, formed by the action of the air upon the vapor rising from the molten minerals beneath; it is like cobwebs of spun glass.

Terribly grand is the scene at all times, but at the periods of eruption, the terrific majesty is beyond all imagination, when rivers of boiling lava, blood red with heat, rush down the mountain-side, forming cascades of living fire, or spreading destruction over the plains, and, when reaching the sea, struggling, roaring, thundering, in bubbling flames and dense smoke for the mastery with the other element.

Heathen nations living among such wonderful appearances of nature cannot fail to connect them with divine beings. The very name of volcano [illegible] to the old classical fancy that the burning hills of the Mediterranean were the workshops of the master god Vulcan and his Cyclops; and in the Sandwich Islands, the terrible Kilanea was [illegible] to be the home of the goddess Pele, whose bath was in the mighty crater, and whose [illegible] was supposed to be the glassy threads that [illegible] the hills. Fierce goddess as she was, she [illegible] no woman to touch the verge of the mountain, and her wrath might involve the whole [illegible] in the fiery destruction.

At length however, the islanders were delivered from their bondage of terror into a clearer light. Missionaries came among them, and intercourse with Europeans made them ashamed of their own superstitious fancies. Very gradually the faith of the people detached itself from the savage deities they had worshipped, and they began to revere the One true Maker of heaven and earth. But still their superstitions hung around Kilanea. There the fiery goddess still reveled in her fearful gambols, there the terrible sights and sounds, and the [illegible] streams that might at any moment [illegible] from her reservoir of flame, were as tokens of anger that the nation feared to provoke. And [illegible] the young King Liholiho, with all his court, had made up their minds to abandon their idols, give up their superstitious practices, and seek instruction from Christian teachers, still the priests of Pele, on her flaming mountain, kept their stronghold of heathenism and threatened her wrath [illegible] those who should forsake the ancient worship.

Then it was that a brave Christian woman, strong in faith and courage, resolved to defy the goddess in her fastness, and break the spell that bound the trembling people to her worship. Her name was Kapiolani, wife of Naihe, the public [illegible] of Hawaii. There was no common trust and resolution needed to enable her to carry out her undertaking. Not only was she outraging the old notions that fearful consequences must follow the transgression of the tabu, or setting apart, not only was the ascent toilsome, and [illegible] into said regions, which were dreadful to a dedicated Hawaiian, but the actual danger of the ascent was great. Wild crags, and slippery [illegible] of lava, or slopes of crumbling cinders, were strangers to the feet of the tender coast-bred women. And the heated soil, the groanings, the [illegible] atmosphere, the vapor that oozed up from the crevices of the half-cooled lava, must have filled any mind with awe and terror, above all, one that had been bred up in the faith that [illegible] were the tokens of the fury of a vindictive and powerful deity, whose precincts she was transgressing.

Very recently a large body of men had been suffocated on the mountain-side by the memphitic gas of the volcano—struck dead, as it must have seemed, by the breath of the goddess.

But Kapiolani, strong in the faith that He, as whose champion she came, was all-sufficient to guard her from the perils she confronted, climbed [illegible] on, bearing in her hand the sacred berries, which it was sacrilege for one of her sex to [illegible].

The enraged priests of Pele came forth from their sanctuary among the crags, and endeavored to bar her way with threats of the rage of their mistress; but she heeded them not. She made her way to the summit, and gazed into the fiery gulf below, then descended the side of the terrible crater, even to the margin of the boiling sea of fire, and hurling into it the sacred berries, exclaimed:

"If I perish by the anger of Pele, then dread her power; but, behold, I defy her wrath; I have broken her tabus; I live and am safe, for Jehovah the Almighty is my God. His was the breath that kindled these flames; His is the hand which restrains their fury! Oh! all ye people, behold how vain are the gods of Hawaii, and turn and serve the Lord!"

Safely the brave woman descended the mountain, having won her cause, the cause of Faith.

In classic times, the philosopher Empedocles had leapt into the burning crater of Mount Ætna, thereby to obtain an imperishable name. How much more noble is the name that Kapiolani gained for herself by the deed that showed forth at whose command alone it is that the mountains quake and flow down, and the hills melt like wax.

NIAGARA BY MOONLIGHT.—People going to the Niagara Falls should time their visits so as to be there when the moon is full. A more romantically beautiful sight there is not in the world, perhaps. At night, too, everything but the water is hushed and still. The mills are not in operation; the quiet is not disturbed by the noise of hackmen or their carriage wheels; and last, but not least, you can stand and enjoy the awful magnificence of God's wonder, and take in, as it were, the poetry of the picture without being elbowed and pestered by the hucksters and pedlars who, in mid-day, follow you everywhere, importuning you to purchase their knick-knacks and so-called "curiosities."

A blast of fourteen kegs of powder was fired at Cisco, Cal., a few days ago. A rock weighing seventy-five pounds was thrown a distance of three-quarters of a mile. In its descent it passed through the dwelling of Sam'l Fletcher, falling on the bed, passing through the mattresses, the floor of the building, and stopping on the ground. A newly married couple had but recently arisen from the bed when the catastrophe happened.

"DEMNITION MOIST."—After the two drenching days which finished last week it will be easy to believe what the figures show—that the fall of rain this year is unusually great. The annual average amount of rain at the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, D. C., for the last thirty years, has been 44.62 inches, but during the first seven months of this year 36.50 inches have already fallen, and if it continues at the same rate for the remaining five months the aggregate will be 62.57 inches, a much greater depth than for any year on record. If we have as much for the remainder of the year as we did for the five latter months of last year, the total will be 57.68 inches, which has never been equaled and only once approached, in 1857, when 57.50 inches fell. This copious abundance from the clouds has, however, been so evenly and equally distributed as to cause little damage from freshets, except in one or two western localities, and has greatly increased the immense harvest, gathered and growing. It has also done a valuable sanitary service by purifying and cleansing the stagnant and unhealthy places which infest all cities. It is estimated every acre exposed to the rain received during June 76,270 barrels of water, and the thorough and liberal washing must have been of perceptible and important benefit. The whole amount of water that fell on Manhattan island during the month of June was 1,212,591,204 barrels, which must have proven a blessing to the "great un-washed" of the metropolis. A thoroughly capacious and extensive system of sewerage is a necessity consequent upon the abundance of water, and where this exists improved public health can hardly fail to result from the combination. The manufacturers who were in sore distrust last year and year before from lack of water, have had no difficulty of that sort this summer, and the great reservoirs are filled with supplies which will be ample against all contingencies. The season of 1867 seems likely to be as remarkable for its abundance and rain as was that of 1866 for its heat, drouth and scarcity.—Springfield, Mass., Republican

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.—On the 29th inst., says a Washington dispatch, Langston, the colored lawyer, heretofore spoken of as likely to be appointed Chief of this Bureau, over General Howard, called upon General Grant, and stated to him the substance of his interview with the President, and asked Gen. Grant's opinion as to the propriety of his accepting the office of Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau. The latter thought that under the circumstances it was unadvisable for him in every respect to accept the office. He thought that if Howard was removed, Langston could not hope to give greater satisfaction in the Bureau. Gen. Grant, in conclusion, said that nothing had been said to him about Howard's removal; but if it were accomplished, he thought, for the reason already stated, that it would be inexpedient, and of no practical benefit to the colored race, for Langston to accept it under existing circumstances.

A MODEL SEASIDE LETTER.—This little letter, written to his mother by a little boy who is spending his vacation on the Penobscot bay, is worth a dozen of the labored effusions and puffs of Jenkins:

Dear Mother:—I am having a splendid time. Last Friday we went out after horse mackerel. We got near to one, when Joe threw the harpoon at him. It struck him near the tail, dragging the boat after him. Man never invented anything that could go as fast as we went then. We soon got him near the bow of the boat. We then killed him with a lance. He was nine feet long and five round. I had my pants washed for six cents when she got back. I read my bible every night before I go to bed, and every morning when I get up. Your affectionate son. M. "CAPITAL CITY CHRONICLE."

J. H. UPTON & A. NOLTNER, Proprietors.

ON SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1867, A LARGE SIZE WEEKLY PAPER, with the above title, will be issued at SALEM, OREGON.

The CHRONICLE will be devoted to Politics, News, and the development of the varied resources of the State. In politics the CHRONICLE will be unflinchingly Democratic, supporting and advocating all those reforms in National and State polity, so urgently demanded at the present time by every consideration involving the weal of the American people. The necessity for a Democratic organ firmly planted at the Capital, will be at once apparent to every thinking Democrat in the State. Such a one we propose to make the CAPITAL CITY CHRONICLE, and with the State thoroughly Democratic to-day, with all prospective changes in favor of that party, there is no valid reason why the enterprise shall not prove a complete success.

While the CHRONICLE will devote ample space to the discussion of political topics, the News of the day, the Agricultural Mining, Mechanical and Manufacturing Interests of the State at large will receive due attention. A twenty-eight column paper, 26x38 inches in size, will furnish ample space and enable us to present in each number an amount of reading matter equal to the importance of the interests involved. We only ask at the hands of the people that legitimate patronage which shall enable us to present a sheet in every way creditable to ourselves and the State—one which none may have the least reason to be ashamed of

All contracts for advertising and subscription existing with the late Democratic Review will be faithfully executed by the proprietor of the CHRONICLE.

Terms of Subscription:

Single copy, one year	$3 00
Five copies, one year	13 75
Ten copies, one year	25 00

And for any greater number, one year, at the rate of $2 50 each.

RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT!

THE MOST REMARKABLE DISCOVERY EVER MADE!

Will Cure All Pains in a Few Minutes!

Read the Certificates:

SPRAINED WRIST CURED.

PORTLAND, August 10, 1867.

I was at Mr Wagner's store on Saturday, August 10th, and seeing the magic effect of J. G. RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, in his case, concluded to try it on my wrist which has been sprained for some time. I found relief inside of FIVE MINUTES from its application, and it is now perfectly well. My wrist was so swelled I could not shut my fingers. I believe it will cure any pain in a short time. I will give any further particulars to whoever calls on me.

VINCENT McCULLOUGH,
Corner of Fifth and College streets.

Tumor Removed!

PORTLAND, August 10th, 1867.

I HAVE USED RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT for pain and swelling of the gum and cheek. I had a large tumor forming on the gum which arose from killing the nerve in my tooth and caused me a dreadful pain which prevented me from sleep for several nights. I applied the Liniment, and to my surprise, it removed the lump and eased the pain so that it is now as well as the other cheek. My cheek was fearfully swollen. This was done in the presence of two witnesses.

I. MITCHELL.

I was present and know the above to be true, and am willing to swear to it. L. QUIVEY.

PORTLAND, August 12th, 1867.

For five years I have suffered with a pain or weakness in my back, which at times was dreadful. I often thought I could not bear such torment. But I got a bottle of RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, and with one rub it perfectly cured me. I can recommend it to any lady suffering from pains in any way, for I am convinced it will at once remove them. DORE COHN,
Corner of Fourth and Taylor streets.

Any person who does not believe this can call, and I will convince them.

Rheumatism Cured!

State of Oregon, County of Multnomah—ss.

I JEREMIAH BROCK, BEING DULY SWORN, SAY that I am fifty-three years of age, that I reside in Yamhill County, State of Oregon. I came to Portland on business, on horseback, from my home this morning. When I left home I could scarcely walk or stand on my feet, from Rheumatism, which has afflicted me for the last eight years. I was standing in Wilson's stable, on First street, in this city, when I heard Mr. Rennick's offer to bet that he would take out the Rheumatism in any case in twenty minutes. Rennicks offered to bet $100 that he could do it. I went to Mr. Rennick's house and he applied the Liniment to my leg, and in twenty minutes my leg felt sound and limber, and as well as ever. JEREMIAH BROCK.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this August 29th, 1867. O. P. MASON,
Notary Public for Multnomah County, Oregon.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian

Fountain of Life!

THE

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARrive when a new direction is imparted to its course. These epochs proceed from discovery of new facts shedding a light which changes the whole aspect of the science. The present is an epoch of this kind, and this Great Remedy, now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based, is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood. The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts; it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance.

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical Science, which can vie with or excel the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier. Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world. No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be more safely and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER. Thousands have been swept into their graves, who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health. It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself. During the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test in full and not been found wanting.

Dr. HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world, and eradicate the disease entirely from the system, or no charge made—provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured.

FOR REFERENCE:

I would refer you to L. L. Peck, of Portland, Oregon, and numbers of others, as to what a miraculous effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years.
